

THE EARTH LIGHT TRANSMISSIONS

Transmission

Zadore Speaks.

"The spiraling energies seen in all vortices reverse their energy patterns at the axis or center of the vortex. The Light consciousness flows in spiral movement, reversing its energy pattern when it moves through the Ego to the Earth-body. The Earth-body reflects this Light and consciousness into the Third-dimension.

"As the Sun warms the Earth, bringing forth light and energy, the Sun will share its light-consciousness with you in this Transmission."

The Sun Speaks.

"You call me 'Sun' and my child 'Earth'. These are not our names, for we have no illusory Third-dimensional names. Zadore said, 'Naming is an Astral manipulation to create separateness'. Naming is used to fragment the Light flowing through the Ego, which destroys oneness.

"Throughout the realms of Light all Beings have a unique frequency, and that frequency has a sound, and pitch that qualifies a Being's signature. The name Zadore is an expression of a signature of Light.

"You will recognize your own signature as you open your consciousness to the Light within. You, Jon, have now recognized your signature as Sizzond.

"At the beginning of the Time-loop, an Astral inspired story told that the God of the day commanded Adam to name all the creatures.

"Adam represents the Ego consciousness of Mankind, and Mankind has continued the naming process, including the naming of its children.

"Although the naming process created the illusion of separateness in the consciousness of Mankind's Ego, it was not enough to draw the Ego away from its source of Light.

"The God told Adam not to eat the fruit from the Tree of Knowledge, or Illusion, which grew in the garden. Unfortunately, the God gave no reason to Adam why he should not eat that fruit, for the God relied on blind obedience from its creation. In the guise of a serpent, the Astrals appealed to Adam's feeling self, suggesting that if he ate the fruit of Illusion, Adam would be greater than the God who placed him in the garden.

"Once Adam tasted the fruit of the Illusion, the Ego turned away from the Light and the Earth. The Ego's consciousness became steeped in the Illusion and laid the blame for its retrogression from Light on the Ego's feeling nature. As the feeling nature of the Ego is expressed predominately through the female Earth-body, the Astral Entities used the forbidden fruit story to subdue the feeling nature by repressing the role of female Ego-expression in the world Illusion.

"The same Astral Lords were in fear of the Light frequency of the Earth, which flows through the female body-pattern, a Light pattern expressing the warmth and nurturing frequency of the Earth. This led to the domination of woman by man in all aspects of power and control and polarized the consciousness of Mankind. The Ego can move from a male to female Earth-body during continuing life-experiences, so the Ego is neither male nor female. It is only the Illusion that fabricated the dominance over 'bodies' through the Astral Lords' fear of the Light of the Earth.

"Journey with me and allow your consciousness and Light to merge with me. You will experience inwardly and know the oneness of the Creative Light, realizing that Light opens and expresses Itself the same on all dimensions, free from the fruit of illusion.

"In the Light there is no beginning or end, for I have always shone in the firmament. I have been and always will be. Minds caught in the World Illusion attempt to predict my creation and end. They search the heavens, watching the progression of the stars, some of which explode into super novae, and others that contract and die. From this, they believe that I too will one day share a similar fate.

"That is an obvious deduction, for all matter of the Third-dimension is in a constant flux. The Light within all things is immutable and never has an ending. The minds of Illusion cannot see beyond their own bodies. They fail to appreciate that their bodies will be cast aside, and the Light within their bodies will continue to exist. However, they know it not.

"The death of the Earth-body is only a positional change in consciousness. After the death of the body, the consciousness that previously flowed through the Ego now manifests on another Dimension. Those who grieve the loss of the Ego and its Earth-body feel it is the end of the consciousness they loved and knew.

"At another moment when the departed consciousness returns to manifest through another Earth-body, it appears to have no connection outwardly with the previous Earth-body. However, it is still the same Ego consciousness.

"I am a being of Light. In the communication that I have with you in these Transmissions, I will be known as Sun.

"There are billions of other stars in the Third-dimensional Universes, and every one of these stars has a different frequency. There is nothing the same in Creation.

"From your position in the Universe, you believe that all stars are separate from one another. That, too, is an illusion, for all stars in the Universes have the same source of Light that emanates from the Fourth-dimension.

"On the Third-dimension all stars are connected by light-strands, referred to as crystal threads. These crystal threads criss-cross the galaxies and universes, creating instant communication between the stars. The Light of this Universe is composed of a harmonious pattern that is the oneness of the externalization of Light.

"The minds in Egos trapped in the Illusion of the World speculate on the Earth's beginning, as well as the beginning of the Universe. Philosophically, they attribute any beginning to the infinite power of a God, or possibly to a mechanical event such as a 'big-bang'. In truth neither of these concepts have any foundation.

"Minds caught in Illusion are 'one-dimensional', believing that nothing exists outside the Third-dimension, as they focus on the relationship of the physical body to their conceived universe. The Illusion not only creates separateness, but also limits consciousness to the Ego's narrow view of creation.

"In Light there are no dimensions or levels. It is only the perception of altered frequencies and density that suggests to Mankind these dimensions exist.

"My Light shines on the Earth and my other children in this system, and mirrors to them the greater Light, which flows through my dimensional expression. It is the Light of the Earth, for my Light is buried deep in the center of the Earth, and the Earth Light is My Light.

"As the Earth and its bodies warm to my Light, let your Ego be warmed by the creative Light, which is the Ego's Light.

Zadore Speaks.

"There is a moment when it all happens for you - all life is in perspective, including you. You always knew you were not of the Earth, but on the Earth. However, although you know it, this understanding may be misleading.

"There is a separation and a coming together, followed by a further separation. As you are an inter-dimensional being, you can be separate from your Ego and its Earth-body and still experience your Light and know that You Are.

"You exist through the consciousness of Light within yourself, from beyond and within the stars. Your Light-consciousness transverses and flows through the layers of frequencies to that point on the Earth where you exist in and through an Earth-body.

" If you and your Ego deny the presence of the Astral Illusion in your consciousness, both the Illusion and the Astral powers will not exist. This spells the end to the Illusion and Time, locking the Astrals in the prison of their own Illusion.

"However, many people believe that it is impossible to exist outside of Time. They cry out, 'Without Time we will cease to exist. We will lack the inventive spirit, and be unable to increase our potential for growth and power'.

"Or so Mankind imagines. The present level of consciousness for most Egos locks them in the Illusion. Unless they step aside, and stop focusing on the Illusion, by moving their consciousness beyond that limited frequency, they will be doomed to live in ignorance, which is a single level of Being. Know well that, regardless of those duped Egos, the Earth will destroy all that the Astrals and their Illusion have done to pervert the Earth-bodies.

"The Earth's consciousness manifests throughout its totality, not just through the human experience. Locked in Illusion, many Egos live with their eyes closed to the beauty of the Creative Light as it flows through all dimensions.

"Through its constant illusory desires, your Ego attempts to darken and muddy the brilliant frequencies of the Earth. Stop, and become quiet. Feel, and see what actually exists around and within you - the Earth's frequencies.

"Once you begin to understand the Earth, you start to understand yourself. Only then, will you truly love the Earth and know that its ascension into Light is at hand. Once this occurs, the Earth will no longer require your Light to reflect through its bodies, for its own Light will shine.

"The expanding Light and freedom of the Earth will bring forth new children - the Earth Light children - born out of its own Light. These new children will know nothing of the Illusion, for their consciousness was born beyond all illusion, especially the Illusion, which darkened the Earth's consciousness previously.

"These children are the Light energies of Adasha, the frequency-signature of the Light-being once called Earth.

"Time will no longer exist; for in Light all is, and all that is occurs instantly in consciousness. That which lives at peace with itself in Light is free from fear and desire. So too will be the children of Adasha, as they exist in Light and not in Time.

"The moment of ascension was conceived and has occurred. It is only that your consciousness is not open to that frequency of experience for Adasha.

" You ask, 'How has this movement of Light occurred for Adasha when I am not aware of it?' You still believe in a past and future. As long as your Ego believes in this, you still live in the Illusion. You await change, and often you are not aware that the change has occurred until some authority confirms the change for you to see it. Often your Inner Light reveals changes in your dreams, and you interpret them as something that will occur in the future, however, you are only remembering something that has already happened.

"A mind involved in the Illusion can only hope for a future - one involving less pain, suffering and non-fulfillment. Therefore, Mankind seeks a future - one that matches the desire for attainment. However, it never meets expectations. Setting goals is also illusory-based because this suggests there is a future that can be molded to the desires of the individual. Goals are predetermined desires allied to the Illusion.

"Most goals are materialistic. They are oriented toward attaining possessions - the most expensive motor vehicle, world travel, a mansion, and a better bank balance. Other goals may appear worthy, such as the best education for the children. Often though, in the future this is turned back on the children, 'See how we skimped and did without so you could have the best start in your life. You owe all your success to us! Now you only look after your own future and care little for what we gave you.'

"All goals are built in the Illusion, and one way to move from the Illusion is to stop setting goals. Goals are linked to time, and time is linked to the Illusion. The Illusion moves your consciousness away from Being - being Light, Love, and Consciousness."

Zadore Speaks.

"Prior to your consciousness passing through the Life-vortex to your Earth-body, you already planned all that you need to experience during this life on Earth. This planned purpose, or experience, is an expansion in your consciousness and has nothing to do with the illusory concept of pre-destiny. Individuals who believe in pre-destiny feel they can live as they please, for they say everything is already ordained.

"Individuals who believe in pre-destiny are unable to move their consciousness into Light. Concepts built in the Astral Illusion are designed to chain the Ego and its consciousness to the Third-dimension so that the Astrals can manipulate these Egos.

"Even though you have decided the direction your Ego will follow in this Life-experience, it is not always obvious to you. Once you begin your present journey of life, the interaction of your Ego with other Egos creates the pattern for your ultimate planned experience. Often, your Ego will move in various directions, sometimes coming to a dead-end. Then it must retrace its steps, following different paths, until it learns what was decided.

"Many individuals do not realize that the lessons to be learned in consciousness are often quite simple, such as how to care for and love another. This may take six months or eighty years. There is no time, only consciousness.

"As you complete all your experiences with the Earth, you will express pure Light in all your feelings and actions. You will have played your Symphony to the end, which was outlined in the Transmission, 'The Symphony of Life'.

"Remembering your Light requires no special ritual, liturgy, spiritual guides, or masters, for all knowledge is in you. The future will not bring you happiness, peace, or Light. The Moment will, so remember your self.

"I have said, 'To live for the Moment means that you do what needs to be done NOW. Nothing you do in your life is meaningless - everything has purpose. Do not neglect work that seems to be repetitive or a drudge, because it all fits into the fullness of your life. It is all a part of the total picture that you are longing to see'.

"Think deeply about this. The Moment is timeless. Seek to know yourself as that Self which talks to you, free from the intrusion of your Ego. Your Light is limitless and all pervasive. Just listen and expand in consciousness until you remember your One Light.

"Many individuals become confused with the word 'Karma'. Karma is thought by some as being retribution for having caused harm or having done wrong to another, either in a present or past Life-experience. There is no God to punish you for the so-called sins or wrongdoing. Yes, in the past, many Astral Lords held themselves to be the Gods of human consciousness, and they sought to punish other Gods as well as human beings.

"Even in recent times there are Gods who punish whole Nations. The God of Moses was one example. In human consciousness, there are as many Gods as there are individuals who believe in them. Some tout the One God concept; however, the One God concept is not a reality.

"Karma is the individual adjustment to learn what moves in Light as well as what blinds the Ego to Light. Karma is the interaction between Egos as they progressively move through one Life-experience to another. Each return experience balances the consciousness of the Ego, gradually turning it back to Light. There is no retribution."

"Beware of becoming involved in performing rituals and initiations, for they are old forms of control that the Astrals have used since the beginning of their Time. Just below the level of the conscious mind in Mankind lies a virtual rubbish tip filled with all the insidious and depraved emotions that Mankind has created and stored through allegiance with the perverse beings that inhabit that space. Since the beginning of Time, these perverse beings are attracted to individuals who congregate together in a mass, whether at sporting events, wars, or political or religious gatherings.

"For millions of years the Astrals have fostered the presentation of Games designed to influence the emotions of the spectators in a negative manner. In the Roman time, it was the bloodletting of Gladiators; now it is the smell of blood engendered at football games and boxing matches. At such gatherings, the individual merges his or her emotions into the destructive mass emotion.

"The Astrals feed on such negativity; and Razparil rules over the hordes of perversity in the so-called underworld, sending them forth to incite and lead humanity in destructive ways. In the days when wars were fought hand-to-hand on battlefields, the perverse beings followed and taunted the soldiers, inciting them to a frenzy of killing. This happens even now in war zones and places of chaos around the world.

"Ritual is a repetitive action not limited to religions and secret societies. Ritual finds its way into all avenues of society: the pomp of a military parade; the opening of sporting events and Games; parliamentary procedures; educational and civil ceremonies of all kinds.

"Rituals are designed to direct the mind and feelings of an individual to a predetermined belief or behavior. Those performing the ritual engender memories and emotions from the level below the conscious mind, by using costumes, incense, and props such as candles and swords. Stimulated by suggestion and imagery, those caught in the fervor of the ritual release their subliminal feelings for use by the Astrals and their perverse beings.

"Governments use ritual to stimulate patriotism in their citizens; and sporting events use ritual to create a bond between the players and spectators.

"Remain free from the Astral influences by avoiding mass gatherings and street demonstrations, which seed the perverse beings of the lower Astral realm.

"Initiation has a deeper impact on consciousness. The most common initiation nowadays is the ceremony of citizenship, which involves swearing allegiance to the country and flag.

"The principles of initiation are the same wherever they are performed. However, it is in initiations reserved for the secret societies and religious orders that the deepest Astral control exists.

"Here, initiation binds the initiate to the initiator, creating a bond that is difficult to sever. More closely than Karma ever could, the initiator binds the initiate for other life experiences beyond the present one. Initiation links the initiate to the initiator for many further life experiences even when the original bond is lost in the consciousness of the initiate.

"Understand initiation as a chain linking the initiator's will, knowledge and purpose with disciples who have been trained in the ways of the Astrals. In early times, to symbolize the tie to the initiator, initiates wore a cord or rope as a belt around the waist, or a cord around the wrist. This expressed the bond between wearer and Master. In some societies, different color cords were used to signify the standing of the disciple.

"A ritual covertly creates conformity, whereas initiation transfers power from one source to another. The original source is from the Astral Lords, and is mirrored in a similar fashion through many initiates caught in that Illusion.

"The Initiator confers the right on the initiate to confer the same power on others whom they have taught, who in turn would repeat the process of initiation. Regardless, everyone in the chain of initiation is linked to the original Initiator.

"The same perpetuation is used in religious ceremonies whereby the Bishop has the power to ordain, as well as the power to create another Bishop.

"The greatest fear of this system of control is that one of the initiates will break the chain consciously, which may sever the progression. Usually, one will break the chain in order to create a new system. Although the new system is based on the original concept, it is altered to fit the notions of the one who broke the chain. It becomes a new religious group or order. However, it is no longer connected to the original source, and only is as strong as the personal power of its originator. In most instances, after the demise of the founder, the new group does not last.

"Other forms of linkage relate to chain letters that apply curses and bad luck on the one who breaks the chain. Nowadays many enlightened individuals realize that the curse is only effective relative to their belief in it.

"Do not place yourself in compromising positions where you subject your Ego to any situation involving initiation. Know what is intended when you observe rituals in your daily life, and avoid becoming involved. They will lead you in the ways of the Astrals, reducing the flow of Light to your Ego and Earth-body."

Zadore Speaks.

"Become as transparent as a clear crystal ball, for the crystal ball allows all things to flow through it and be seen. Nothing impinges on such transparency. What is transparent cannot experience pain and suffering.

"Let your Ego become clear and transparent as the crystal ball. At present, your Ego is not clear because it allows all feeling to adhere to its surface, and varying emotions blend with it, coloring it. This coloring is the excess baggage you carry, and influences the way you behave.

"As you move your Earth-experiences from your senses, through your Ego to your Light, these experiences colored by your Ego do not pass through, but are mirrored back to the world of the senses. This is a negative mirror.

"Realize much of the problem involved with the Human Ego is that all beings are mirroring back the same negative reflections. The Illusion is a hall of mirrors, and they are all muddied reflections.

"When your beautiful Light essence mirrors its Light through you, through your crystal Ego, how much of its radiations actually extends through your senses into the world?"

"You need to clean the tarnished coating from your crystal Ego, and in so doing you will take the first step back toward Me, for your inner Light and I are one in Light. Your vision will be clear, as One Light shines in the world.

"For most of you the cleaning is tiresome and difficult work. It is only difficult because it is not fun.

"The sensual nature of the body acts as a mirror to the Ego, which in turn mirrors Light and consciousness to the body. As this Light passes through the body senses, it is externalized in the dimension.

"Other Egos on the same dimension react to what they perceive - whether the externalized Light is information or feeling - and mirror their reactions back to the Ego that mirrored the externalized Light into the dimension. This in turn is mirrored to the Light source of that Ego, and, in this way, Light experiences its own reflection.

"This is a simplistic interpretation of consciousness, however, it is necessary to present learning simply, if you are to clear your crystal Ego.

"To move toward the Vortex of Light and Healing you need to become aware of your transparent self. For you are that crystal ball. Transparency is the path of new consciousness, and you should affirm inwardly that you are a transparent being of Light, for you are already that Light. Let your Ego become the transparent lens, which allows the clear flow of Light through it into the Third-dimension and the Earth.

"Once you clean your crystal Ego, you will see that the Earth is a conscious being reflecting the patterns of Light and information from the inner essence of the Sun.

"Your body is a reflection of the Earth, yet you know it not. Your Ego believes that it is the body, and is so caught up in its desires and the Illusion that it cares little for the needs and consciousness of the body and, for that matter, the Earth.

"To become a true expression of Light cast out the feeling that you are the body, and that the Ego believes it is the body. When you drive a motor vehicle, do you believe you are the vehicle? Of course you don't. However, as you move around in your body you are not a part of it.

"Some individuals make affirmations such as, 'I am not the body' and repeat this over and over. When their body becomes ill or hurt they immediately become body oriented. This feeling is reinforced by fear when others mirror back to the afflicted individual their own negative responses to illness and pain.

"Love your body as you love the Earth, for it is part of the ever-expanding consciousness of Light. You are here to give your body a higher dimension of consciousness, and that consciousness becomes a permanent part of the Earth's consciousness.

"When you move to the outer rim of the Vortex of Light and Healing you will sense the need to seek the pure crystal ball that represents your Ego. For, once the Ego is transparent, the Light is expressed continually.

"Prior to the intervention of the Astrals and their Illusion, the Ego was transparent and the Earth received the full flow of Light. At that level of consciousness, the Earth was purely reactionary as it mirrored information to other planets and stars in the Galaxy. It still does this, however the struggle of the Egos in the Illusion has expanded the Earth's consciousness where it had become self-conscious and is conscious of its own Light, as It, too, remembers.

"The intensity of the Illusion has been magnified by the growth of technology, or the growth of techno-consciousness. Your senses are bombarded with images that increase the tarnish on your Ego, as a fascination with technology tends to draw your Ego deeper into Illusion.

"To move deeper into the Vortex of Light and Healing you need to trust the inner direction of your Light. The Astral Lords through their Entities have confused you into thinking that trust and blind faith are the same thing.

"Through institutional creations such as governments, corporations, religions, etc, the Astrals suggest that these institutions hold the answer for your future happiness, safety and survival, and will protect you from everything that will take these from you.

"Authority deflects your consciousness away from perceiving your Light and placing your trust in the Light. The Illusion places constraints on your freedom, holding your Ego in bondage. Recognize the Illusion for what it is, and in so doing you will move more quickly into the Vortex of Light and Healing.

Know that the Illusion is the baggage that weighs you down, chaining your consciousness to blind faith.

"Many individuals fear the end of the World as they know it. They see this end as a return to a primitive lifestyle devoid of all the luxuries they now take for granted. More than this, they fear that this end will result in the death of their bodies. Death of the body will not release you from the Illusion. The only release from the Illusion results from what you do here on this dimension in your Earth-body. Release does not depend on time, for often it is instantaneous.

"Meditate on this Transmission and direct your consciousness into the Vortex. Desire Healing and Be!
