

THE EARTH LIGHT TRANSMISSIONS

Transmission.

Zadore speaks:

“Ascended masters, world teachers and self-proclaimed gurus seek to take charge of your Ego. If you follow their directions, they promise to free your consciousness from the bondage of the Third-dimension.

“After freeing your consciousness from the world and its negativity, these self-proclaimed masters will relieve you of your worldly possessions and wealth, for they claim that possessions will bind your consciousness to the material world. They argue, what use are these possessions to you once you have entered the higher realms of spirituality?

“For all of you who are receiving these Transmissions, this is your moment of inner action. Without conscious action, you will fall asleep to the Light of your being, and take the easy way out, by entrusting your freedom to others.

“There is only one way out of the Astral Illusion, and this is by work, work and more work.

“Your Light does not use the symbols of language for the expression of consciousness, because your Light manifests consciousness through the Earth-body, through feeling.

“Sit quietly and understand what your Light consciousness reveals to you in these moments of attunement.

“Now you will experience intuitive insights and understanding that your brain translates into thoughts and words.

“Reading these Transmissions will stimulate the Light consciousness within you, and this Light will fill your life with purpose and direction.

“The influx of Light and understanding becomes an illumination for the Earth-body consciousness. Also, this is an illumination for the Earth’s consciousness.

“As distinct from the body senses, feeling is an inner state of consciousness that increases your union with your Light. In order to feel, stop intellectualising and be conscious of which side of your brain is predominantly active at the time.

“The balance between the hemispheres of the brain results in a feeling of peace and purpose in a life filled with Light.

“For many individuals, feelings are just ‘head-stuff’, as they feel through their intellect. If you ask them – ‘What what are you feeling now?’ – the reply is not forthcoming, for they attempt to reason their feelings rather than feel them.

“Astral Entities use emotive words in books, magazines and movies to manipulate your inner feeling. They attempt to make you sad; to cry; to be angry; joyful or happy. Sentimentality that is acted out often influences your emotions. These are not your true feelings, but are mechanisms that produce energy for the survival of the Astral Lords.

“In a recent Transmission I talked about the Ego being a tarnished lens. As the feeling consciousness flows from your Light through this tarnished lens to your Earth-body on the Third-dimension, the consciousness is often dulled and incomprehensible.

“Challenge your Ego immediately after a positive or negative experience with others. Ask yourself, ‘How do I feel about this?’

“As your atunement with your inner feelings develops, you do not need to continue this questioning, for you will instantaneously feel something. However, you will not always feel good from the reaction expressed by your Ego during that encounter.

“Initially, when you ask that question, your Ego will assert its position by blaming everyone and everything else except itself.

“An attribute of the Light that flows through the Vortex of Light and Healing is expressed as Love on all dimensions. You feel Love as a warm and peaceful sensation.

“As you are a feeling being, you cannot be taught how to feel, for feeling is no different from your Light. All you have to do is be that Light and Love. Just remember to allow yourself to feel through the flow of Light and Love that surrounds you and is within you.

“Fear destroys Love and feeling, as it destroys Light. Fear is a major conflict in human consciousness. The Astral forces in the world consistently build fear by manipulating money markets, for they know that these manipulations create poverty, crime, wars and sickness in a society locked in Illusion.

“Your consciousness is involved in a Global Illusion that affects the lives of everyone instantaneously, no matter where they live on the Earth. The Global Illusion uses the same fear patterns now as it did at the beginning of the Time-loop, however, now it applies the patterns of fear to control the actions of all humanity simultaneously.

“To maintain the global pattern of fear, the Astral Entities know that the greatest fear the human ego feels is of the suffering and death of the body. To reinforce the pattern they infuse human consciousness with feelings that without bodily involvement there is no happiness or life, suggesting thereby that anything which threatens the life or integrity of the body is to be feared.

“The terrorist attack on New York was an excellent example of control by fear, for within twenty-four hours of the attack the whole American Nation went into fear and remained so for several months. The engendered fear gave the Astral Entities time to manipulate the Government and its Agencies to instigate measures to remove so-called ‘freedoms’ from the individual.

“Until people begin to use their intelligence, and recognize the Astral agenda, which is the control and subjection of the Ego of humankind, these Entities will turn country against country, races against race, and religion against religion, providing their masters with the negative energy on which they feed.

“Over thousands of years the Astral Lords have enslaved human consciousness, duping them into believing they need to be saved. Saved from what?

“Ask yourself that question and you will find the only thing you need to be saved from is your fear, a fear that is only an illusion.

“The Thread of Infinity told of the creation of the Matrix of Time. The Entities responsible for its creation are now working in official capacities on all sides of the world-conflict. There are no winners or losers in this battle, which sets people against one another. The Astral Entities seek to promote total conflict, and when Rasparil returns to the dimension his appearance will herald the final days of this Time-loop.

“Inwardly, many individuals sense that time will end. Many are confused by the prophecies extracted from different writings such as the Christian Bible, the Mayan calendar and other sources that suggest the end of life on Earth is at hand. They see the prophecies as heralding a time when everyone will face their God who will either reward or punish them. These prophecies are assumptions based on the false premise that time exists.

“Those who read One Light know that time is an illusion, for time does not exist outside the human consciousness, because time is a repetitive loop.

“The Astrals and their entities consider humans as mindless automatons, rigidly and blindly following the same route time and time again, always forgetting the past.”

A Moment in Consciousness.

Sizzond speaks:

“The great light of the Sun shone in the firmament. It did not remember when it first shone, for possibly it had always shone. It did not feel alone, for there were other Lights in the Dimension flowing into infinity.

Crystal strands of Light connect all the Lights in the heavens to one another. The stars appear in human consciousness as the drops of dew on a spider’s web sparkling in the morning sunlight.

“All stars are aware of their light, for their light is reflected back to them from the planets.

“The Sun is a new light in comparison to many other stars. Within the Sun’s consciousness is the awareness that it reflects the Greater Light from within its being.

“Prior to the formation of the planets, the Sun pulsated with the warmth of Love which emanated from the Light within. The Love and warmth expanded and overflowed, filling the dimension.

“The overflowing of Light and Love filled the ethers and spiralled away from the Sun, dispelling the darkness. When this outflow reached a point of inertia, it reversed its directional movement and solidified. A child was born in the consciousness of the Sun.

“What flows out from the center always returns to its source, adding consciousness to the Light. As the Earth returns to the Sun, it is filled with the Light and Love accumulated from its journey in consciousness.

“The ascension of the Earth into the Fourth-dimensional consciousness is an expansion in Light, which draws the Earth closer to oneness with the Sun. This Earth ascension is the self-realization of the Light flowing through it.

“Consciousness is an attribute of the creative light, and is the same conscious Light that flows through the Ego to the Earth-body.

“Religious and philosophical groups are unable to recognize the essence of the Light consciousness that exists in humankind. They speculate about the existence of a divine spark and a soul, sometimes referring to them as being the same thing and at other times referring to them as separate entities.

“They preach that the soul has to be saved, whilst always neglecting to mention what it has to be saved from. Possibly it has to be saved from the Devil, but never from Man.

“Many individuals are unable to come to grips with the intangibility of the soul and find it easier to leave their salvation in the hands of the priests.

“Over the centuries other cults developed the theory that human beings have several different bodies, each one integrated to various levels of consciousness. The first or last body being the Earth-body, depending from which direction you view it.

“The fragmentation of consciousness into various bodies is an advantage for the Astrals because it confuses the individual who strives to know which level of consciousness, or body, is presently affecting their health and behaviour.

“To fragment individual consciousness into believing they have a causal, mental, astral, etheric and physical body is not only unnecessary but overburdens the effective flow of Light. Often the experts add three more bodies beyond the Causal stage, successfully alienating the Light for the Earth.

“The so-called Etheric Body consists of the energy patterns that maintain the morphogenesis of the Earth-body. It acts as a link or vortex between the body and the Ego. It is the Life-vortex.

“The Ego is the sum total of all the other suggested fragmented ‘bodies’. Beyond the Ego is the One Light, not three other ‘bodies’.

“What is often called the soul is really the Ego. Often individuals consider the Ego as being the real essence of their existence, for the Ego appears to direct and give purpose to their existence in the body.

“In the memory banks located in the ionization belts surrounding the Earth are all the morphogenetic patterns required for consciousness to manifest on the Earth, whether as a human, other animal or plant. Old patterns have served their purpose and are not required any longer, whereas others exist for consciousness as the Earth manifests its expanded consciousness.

“All the morphogenetic patterns are synchronous, manifesting a synergy that maintains the manifestation of Light and consciousness for the Earth.

“The Ego, through its belief in the Illusion, stresses the biological function of the Earth-body, and, in turn, this stresses the energy and life functions of all other Earth patterns for Light and consciousness.

“When the Earth-body sleeps, the Ego departs temporarily, for there is little influence it can exert at that time.

“During the sleep cycle of the Earth-body its Ego interacts with other Egos whose bodies are also resting. At this time, the Astrals often exert through dream experiences influence on Egos whose actions they need to control. Often these dream experiences are mixed with the body-dreams created by the interaction of the two hemispheres of the brain.

“The sleeping Earth-body reacts to the consciousness flowing between the right and left hemispheres of the brain. As the dream experiences are often related to the varied emotional experiences of the waking time, they appear confusing and difficult to link when in the waking state.

“As there is no time in the sleeping state to relate to, the whole dream is experienced in a moment. An experience that could take days to live out in the waking state is instantaneous in the dream. For this reason, when attempting to remember the dream the Ego can only view it with an unconnected understanding.

“As you become aware of the Earth consciousness through your body you will experience the Light of the Earth as well as the Light beyond your Ego. Your body will be less stressed, as your increased awareness will tell you when your Ego moves into the Illusion.

“Time ends when your Ego loses its fascination for the Astral Illusion and turns away from its influence, allowing the Light to flow untainted to the Earth. Once the individual experiences the expanded consciousness of the Ascended Earth, for them Illusion and Time will end forever.

“Regardless of the Earth’s new consciousness, its outward appearance is unaltered in your eyes. If you have the vision to see the beauty and Light of the Earth, you will have ended all Illusion in your consciousness. It is only by perceiving the Earth through the Illusion that you are unable to perceive its expanded Light.”

Informational Pathways.

Zadore Speaks:

(In conjunction with this Transmission read Transmission 15 in Enter the Vortex as One Light.)

“In that Transmission I said that the five senses of the Earth-body are informational pathways. They receive information from the universal Light through the Ego, and the body expresses the Light through the senses from its involvement with Ego-oriented Earth Bodies.

“The interaction of the expressed Light on the Third-dimension is sent back through the Ego to the Light consciousness of your being.

“The Light flow through the Ego and the subsequent sensory reaction constitute the informational pathway of Light experience and consciousness.

“The outflow of Light and the return flow of information are distorted by the Ego engrossed in the Illusion.

“However, without the Ego the Earth-body is incapable of transmitting and receiving experiences of consciousness on the Third-dimension. Equally, without the Earth-body the Ego’s existence would experience separation from the flow of Light. This is the reason the Astral Lords tempt the Ego with the Illusion. To ‘capture’ an Ego allows that Ego to act as a lens for the Astral Lords’ dark designs.

“The body is composed of trillions of cells which, in turn, form the various organs on different frequencies. All the cells interact and share the total consciousness of the body. Informational pathways between the cells provide instant awareness of any cellular disruption in the body.

“The frequency of awareness operates in all bodies of the Earth, whether animal, bird or insect. The totality of all organisms including rock minerals and plant vegetation constitutes the consciousness of the Earth.

“The Ego of one individual is connected with the consciousness of all other Egos, and this same Ego consciousness is shared with all other life organisms of the Earth, just as the body’s cells are all connected in consciousness, then all Egos are the Ego consciousness of Adasha - the Earth.

“Now you will expand your Light and consciousness of the awareness of oneness of all form patterns on Earth, as well as the oneness of Ego. This expansion of your consciousness removes the selfish separation you experience in the Illusion.

“Adasha, which is the expanding consciousness of the Earth, expresses Light on the Fourth-dimension. Once you turn your Ego away from the Illusion you will vibrate at that frequency that harmonises with Adasha, leading you to experience Light and consciousness on the Fourth-dimension.

“In these Transmissions I said that the Earth has ascended into the Fourth-dimension, only you are not aware that this has occurred unless some authority of the world confirms this. That cannot happen, for only your personal experience in Light will reveal that to you. Only then will you open your consciousness to blend with Adasha, and you too will be aware of the Fourth-dimension.”

AS I SEE IT.

Jon Whistler.

“Now you can journey with me, to share the vision of the future Earth, and, eventually, deep within yourself you will learn the true name of the Earth. For it is also your name – the human name of all.

“As you progress to become one with the Fourth-dimension through your Light, you will begin to feel its pulse, its song, its creativity and its ascension to the Fourth-dimension, where all Light exists for this Universe. The Earth will be one in Light.

“The vision is not of destruction, but one of change. Destruction is only part of the Ego’s working in concert with Astral needs. Janix cannot destroy the Earth. He can disrupt and maim many bodies, animal and plant, through your acceptance. But when you turn from this, the Astral power is weakened, and in their weakened state they become ineffectual.

“Do you see how they programmed the consciousness of the Ego to relate to fear and expectation? They have created many events in the mind of humankind: a fear of war and mass destruction: plagues and all sorts of pestilence: of environmental disaster. They created the image and your belief in its manifestation allows them to create the conditions – just like a movie.

“They create the war, the poverty, the sickness. A plague of disease is easily orchestrated through the release of manufactured viruses. An atomic power station can create mutations in many, and the paltry Y2k bug - a simple need to correct two digits - became a major problem in the human consciousness!

“You know that the Astral Entities thrive on this fear. However, it is their Masters that live in true fear, for once their powers are lost here, they will live in the hell which they created. The Earth has no need of their interference.

“This so-called new millennium is also illusion, for it is an arbitrary calculation that has changed time and time again. Its true beginning is lost in antiquity, and in any case, is only one calculation of the centuries, as there are different calendars belonging to different cultures. More important of consideration, though, is the end of the Time Loop, which involves everyone, regardless of culture or belief. This is not linked to this millennium, and it is the created powers of the Astral Entities that eventually bring about destruction and the reversal of civilization as we know it.

“This is what Janix and his Entities are presently working toward. However, this time the end is different, for the Earth has changed and this change will carry its consciousness away from the Illusion and into the higher dimension. And this shift in consciousness involves the shift in consciousness in which we all must become involved ...

“And I saw the Sun draw forth the fire in the Earth, which made the lights in the sky. Many people became fearful, for they expected that it was the end of the world.

“And it was... the end of the world, for that world is only Illusion, and the Earth is the actual Being. And within the sharing of Light between Mother Sun and its Child Earth, the child began to mature. And they all sang the same song – the Song of Adasha.”

(The Thread of Infinity - 2000)

In conjunction with the next published Earth Light Transmissions, Jon Whistler will expand on the above relative to events presently unfolding at this moment and the end of the Time Loop.
