

THE EARTH LIGHT TRANSMISSIONS

Jon Whistler. 2002.

Welcome to the Earth Light Transmissions, which are given by lightpulsations.com, free, to you. They will be updated as new Transmissions are received and written.

When studying the Earth Light Transmissions your consciousness will harmonize with the Earth's consciousness. Your Ego will turn away from the Illusion, allowing your Light to move through your body to the Earth.

Mistakenly, and because you feel attached to your Earth-body, you believe that your consciousness is the same as the Earth's consciousness. In essence, you are a being of pure Light, flowing into this Third-dimension through the Sun. At the time of your birth, you moved into your prepared Ego and into your body. That was your Earth connection. However, due to your Ego's fascination with the Astral Illusion, your Light radiations for the Earth are fragmented and diminished.

The Astrals created their Time Loop in order to fragment the availability of Light to the Earth. In this Time Loop they invented various "creation stories" to hide the truth from the consciousness of humankind. Although there are various creation stories found in different old civilizations, there is a common thread connecting them all.

A God who is in charge of the creation of the Earth is one of the common elements in all the stories. Often this God created a male being who was in control of the daily running of the Earth, and, subsequently, a female being referred to as the "Earth Mother". From these two entities all the "little people", or Children, flowed forth and inhabited the Earth.

Both the Father and Mother designed the rules that the Earth Children must follow to maintain a lifestyle in harmony with the God's terms. When everything had been put in place, the Father and Mother left, secure in the knowledge that the Earth Children would obey, and live in harmony with, the rules. In time, the Children were influenced by the dark spirits, which led them astray from their birthright.

Seeing this, the old God became angry and destroyed all the Earth Children who had disobeyed Its rules. The God spared the remaining Children who still lived in obedience to the teachings given their ancestors by the Father and Mother. The God then sent a Messenger to ensure that the spared Children remembered the original rules, so that they might live in the Light again. After the Messenger departed, many of these Children then strayed and forgot the original teachings, moving into darkness and ignorance.

For a third time the God destroyed those who heeded not Its rules, and once more sent another Messenger of Light. However, the agents of darkness and illusion ridiculed and destroyed the Messenger, and enslaved the hearts and minds of the Earth Children.

In the present time, many await the return of the old God; and they trust that this God will set all things aright. They do not know which God will come, for there are many Gods who have many masks, which allow them to rule by deception.

All the creation stories allude to the human Ego denying the flow of Light for the Earth. However, added to this truth is the erroneous and subversive suggestion that, through obedience to the rules of the 'God', all will be made right. Also that, by assenting to the power and control of the Astral Lords, Humankind will attain greatness and become a God.

As the individual Ego became engrossed in the Illusion, it forgot its true purpose and desired wealth and power over all others.

Life in the Illusion is an incomplete life fraught with pain, hardship, and suffering. Such a life is supported by selfishness and a total disregard for the feelings of others. When, finally, after many life experiences in different bodies, an Ego sees the uselessness of this life, it desires to break free from all the controls imposed on its consciousness. At this point, the Ego begins to sense and remember what it is missing — the Love and Light that radiate from the source of All. Once the desire for Love and Light is fulfilled, the Ego allows its Light to flow to the Earth.

The Earth is a conscious Light Being that has always received its Light and consciousness from the Sun. Beyond this it also requires the Light from the Fourth-dimension for its expansion of consciousness beyond the Third-dimension. All Egos were created to move the Light from the Fourth-dimension through the Earth-body to the Earth.

Flowing through the Sun, the Light from the Fourth-dimension harmonizes with the Light of the Third-dimensional frequency. This confluence of Light expands the Earth's consciousness. As this Light flows through the Egos to the Earth, the Earth ascends in Light.

Jon: "Many people find it difficult to crystallize in their minds and consciousness what the Astral Illusion actually is. To most individuals the Illusion is a reality, whereas it does not actually exist. Their reality is based on what their senses perceive and, by that perception, their mind adds dimension to the Illusion."

Zadore: Human life and consciousness are reactionary. Life is a reaction to a stimulus. As the Light deepens in the Third-dimension, it diffuses and manifests in frequencies. The Ego reacts to these changing patterns of Light, perceiving the patterns as separate from the Light. These perceptions also separate the patterns, which are viewed as the varieties of animals, plants, minerals and other organisms.

Within the Illusion, Humankind reacts to the frequencies that the Astrals use to delude the Ego's perceptions. The chief frequency of delusion is fear. However, in the Light there is no fear.

The Illusion and all its negative aspects of fear, ignorance, greed and selfishness, hate, murder, control and vanity are but a reflection of the frequency of the Astral consciousness. The Astrals' Illusion is the reflection of the essence of their being and the rejection of Light.

Egos are living in the mirrored consciousness of the Astrals. Most Egos mistakenly believe that the mirrored consciousness of the Astrals is actually their own consciousness. They react, then, accordingly with the frequencies of the Illusion.

Individuals who attempt to control the actions and lives of others are inwardly living in fear of those whom they seek to hold in bondage to their will. Individuals who harmonize their consciousness with the Astrals exist only as a reflection of the frequencies of the Astral consciousness, for now the Illusion exists as a reality in their lives.

Fear and control manifest on all levels of human existence and are not limited to the so-called ruling class. Parents often fear their children, and employers their employees. Individuals such as these unconsciously feel that they cannot sustain their authority. They resort to tactics that are intended to create fear and subjection, such as withholding love from the children, and dismissal for the employees.

From what you have just heard, it should be obvious to you, what little power the Astrals and their Entities actually have. The mirrored frequencies of the Astrals are not strong enough to reject the flow of Light through the Egos, so the Astrals and their Entities live in fear of Humankind. They attempt desperately to create waves of fear to distract humankind from the Light that flows through the whole Dimension.

The Illusion is an outflow of the Astrals' own fear, and this fear exists only for them, as well as for those who believe in them. The Astrals cannot exist in Light and, as the ever-creative Light fills the frequencies of the Earth, both they and their Illusion will cease to exist.

The Astral Lords and their Entities created the Matrix of Time — the Time Loop — in order to limit the expression of Human consciousness. They saw the death of the Human body as the perfect medium for reinforcing the concept of Time, as well as the process of forgetfulness.

The Astral Entities deceived Humankind by perpetuating the lie that the death of the body was the end of the life and existence of the individual. They stated that, on death, the Soul (or Ego), moved through the veil of forgetfulness, never to return. Through this lie, they attempted to hold human consciousness in the Loop of Time. When certain individuals remembered previous experiences in different bodies, the Entities had them ridiculed by religious leaders and members of the medical fraternity of the era.

In areas of the world where individual re-birth was an accepted concept, the lie was to state that a human could be re-born as something more lowly — usually a despised animal — or into a position of wretchedness, if one did not obey the rules of living. The cycle of re-birth was suffering and forgetfulness, always tied to the Wheel of Time.

In past eras, the Astral Entities became Emperors of lands and kings of countries, and religious leaders, and held positions in Law to maintain control. This often proved dangerous for them, because their Earth-bodies were vulnerable to attack by dissidents. In the present era, they have cunningly removed themselves from the forefront of any direct confrontation with the mass of humanity by virtue of a simple answer to the problem. This is to trade the cult of personality for the smoke screen of an organization. When organizations become the Authority, then the Entities are able to hide behind a structure. People assign their life and power to the organization and its structure, just as they do and have done with the various Gods. Organizations have become worldwide corporations, and corporations are now replacing countries.

It means little what structure the Entities move to, because the purpose and the net result are the same — to enslave the minds, bodies and Egos, and perpetuate the Illusion.

Corporations backed by the Astral Entities are centers of control in their network. For them, the Earth, or more specifically, Nature, is their enemy. What Humankind calls Nature is the Earth's Ego, and Nature is the seat of the Earth's consciousness.

The Astral Entities believe the Earth holds many secrets that prevent them from achieving the goals of their Masters. The Astral Entities attempt forcibly to wrestle these so-called secrets from the Earth, to increase their wealth and domination over Humankind.

Jon: "I am a little confused. I have never thought of the Earth as having an Ego, however it is logical that it should. You say that 'Nature' represents the Earth's Ego. Do the Astral Entities know that?"

Zadore: Generally, no. However, the Astral Lords do, and this is part of their fear. The experiences that the Earth has undergone over many billions of years have expanded its consciousness, opening its Ego to receive more Light. Presently, there is a greater influx of Light flowing through the Earth Ego and that is opening the Earth to the Light flow from the Fourth-dimension. You will appreciate the fear this places in the Astrals, for they cannot exist in Light. To continue to exist, they will have to move deeper into density.

You will remember in the One Light Transmissions that I told you the Astral Lords assumed they were greater than the Light from which they came. For them it was a delusion of grandeur, a profane vanity that automatically distanced them from the source of all Light.

They were not cast out. Rather, their own darkness repelled them. The same will occur within the Earth. As the Earth becomes filled with the Light of the Fourth-dimension, the Astrals will be repelled. They can only move to an area where the Light is less intense, and that is the Second-dimension.

The Light flowing through the Earth's Ego is for all the organisms and their consciousness. There are no conditions applied by Nature; its beauty is for all. This is the Earth Light.

Through the interaction of the energies of the Sun and the magnetic lines of force flowing through the Earth's soil, the trees mirror the frequency of green in their foliage. Early in the morning, their leaves shine with gems of dew, sparkling in the sunlight. Their branches sway in rhythm to the gentle breezes and stand firm in the gales.

Oceans, lakes, rivers and streams reflect the mood of the sky. The ochre colors of the deserts' mountains are ablaze against the backdrop of the deep blue heavens. White foam of the thundering waves breaks on golden shores, forming patterns of white lace filled with sparkling jewels.

Poets have written verse about the beauty of the Earth. Their eyes have been opened to the so-called secrets, the Earth's power and energy — the power and energy that created your body, as well as all else on the planet.

The Light radiates forever through all Dimensions, and the manufactured fabric of the Illusion will weaken, as more and more individuals replace fear with love.

TRANSMISSION.

Now the Great Light of Zadore fills the energy waves of the Third-dimension, opening your consciousness to the Vortex of Light and Healing. The moment is at hand.

Zadore.

There is only one way to freedom — one path — and, unconsciously, all Egos follow that path until, consciously, they realize the fallacy of the Illusion. At that moment in consciousness, the Ego casts aside the shroud of the living dead, and consciously seeks to discover and express Light.

The Great Prophecy, (see Thread of Infinity), heralded the end of this, the last Time-loop, which has often been referred to as the “End Time” or “The End of Time”.

Many religious historians thought that, with the movement of the Light of Ma Kwa Jesu, (Jesus), on the Earth, the end of the Time-loop was imminent. It was the beginning of the end.

When Ma Kwa Jesu's body rested in the sepulcher, His Light moved through the Astral Realm. His Light sent the Astral Lords and their Entities into fear, because the Light repelled them and they knew that if it remained there for long, it would destroy them. This was not the end of time for them. However, the influx of Light effectively reduced their power by one third, weakening their control over the consciousness of Humankind. The Earth Ascension and the Vortex of Light and Healing will destroy the remaining influence of the Astrals and their Entities.

Ma Kwa Jesu also brought with the Light into the Third-dimension, pure unconditional Love. This frequency has consistently drawn all Egos closer to the Light and the Light of each other. The Love frequency demands nothing and gives freely, for it is of the Light. It is the feeling of oneness in your consciousness.

If you have studied the Transmissions of 'One Light', 'Enter the Vortex as One Light' and 'The Oracle to Freedom', and taken their messages into your daily lives and applied them for the benefit of others, you will have opened your consciousness to the beauty and peace of your inner Light and Love.

Many Egos who have not read the Transmissions but have opened to the sensitivity of their inner feelings, are being drawn unconsciously into the Vortex of Light and Healing, for all are One in Light.

Seekers who are still working in the Illusion expect that they should have some startling initiation, or inner demonstrations of a spectacular nature, filled with illumination and enlightenment. This is the only way they perceive a return to higher contact with their God. For others, the expectation is of a mystical experience, elevating them to the level of a Cosmic Master. The Astral Lords often reward these seekers with such experiences, and consequently the seekers fall deeper into Illusion.

Little do they know that the so-called Cosmic Masters are no more than the Astral Entities, who care little for the Children of the Earth.

Following the great expectations of salvation entertained in the minds of many individuals, the end of the Time-loop will be a letdown. The God will fail to appear to save the chosen few. Those who have remained faithful to the laws of God will see that those laws were instigated by the Devil, Razparil, whom they will soon meet. There will not be any Masters of the world to save them, except Janix. There will not be any Extraterrestrials or Angels to come and teach Humankind how to live in greater harmony. There is no escape from one's Self. Salvation exists in the individual and does not come from outside sources. The End of Time has no future date, but only exists in your consciousness. YOU can end the Time-loop NOW, by moving your Ego into its Light source.

The Astral Lords are devious in their methods of control, illusion and subterfuge. They care nothing for good or evil, since it is all the same with them.

They allow for the creation of the Gods of the religions, Cosmic Masters, Eastern Gurus, Great White Brotherhoods and Satanic Cults. In fact, they use any system that leads the seeker into separation from the Light within. Be quiet in your being and listen, for the Light of all that joins all as One, will reveal your awakening.

Let these Transmissions draw your Ego away from the Astral Illusion and harmonize your Earth-body with its source. Share with the Earth its beauty and Light, as it opens its Light to the greater Light, ending all Illusion.
